How do I contract and secure the space to host my private event? Your event contract may be drawn in person, by mail or via e-mail. Each private event requires a signed contract and deposit.

What about hotel accommodations? We are located within a mile of many major hotel chains and have compiled a list of accommodations for your convenience on our website: www.crabtreechiropractic.com/meetingroom

The Crabtree Chiropractic Meeting Center offers an array of seating styles to compliment your next event. Our most requested arrangements are listed below, though we can customize a seating style that caters to your unique needs:

Theater Seating

Chairs are placed in rows facing front with no tables – best for speakers or elaborate visuals.

Classroom Seating

Attendees are seated at tables in rows facing front –best for speakers if note-taking is required.

Conference-Style Seating

Participants sit on three sides of a rectangular table, with the leader/presenter at the head – best for under 30 participants, and if a solid writing surface is required.

U-Shape Seating

One of the most popular arrangements for less than 30 participants – best for training and for placement of the leader in the middle of the connecting end of the U.
